Immigrants brought new cultures, religions, and languages to the increasingly complex American mosaic. The success of the Bolshevik Revolution brought a widespread suspicion of socialists, radicals, and labor unions. There were those in America who clung tenaciously to the values of the past. They would not give up without a fight.

Old Values vs. New Values [ushistory.org]

The last value--competence--is the oldest value on the battlefield. It's a central value that anchors all the others. In simple terms, it means the ability to do your job. In peacetime, we practice tactics, strategy, and weapons-firing. We must do the same with our values. We must develop the candor to display the courage to make
