Into the Grey is a terrific novel. It's a beautiful written and executed ghost story that speaks to the deep connections between people (families, twins, brothers-in-arms, and a bonus male-female friendship). With heart-wrenching moments and an incredibly satisfying ending, this is a highlight of my reading year.

Amazon.com: Customer reviews: Into the Grey

THE LITTLE GREY GIRL is achingly sad, fierce and beautiful and humming with wild magic. It is also an exploration of trauma, and how difficult it can be to conquer intangible things like fear and rage. Celine Kiernan's writing is lyrical genius. I felt utterly sucked into this gentle yet scarred world, with its c
